Primary Care Respiratory Society

Building the case for change

20th – 21st November | Wychwood Conference Centre, Crewe

Workshop co-chairs: Catherine Blackaby and Siobhan Hollier
Facilitators: Catherine Blackaby and Siobhan Hollier

Friday 20th November 2026

1230-1315	Arrival, registration and lunch
1315-1330	Welcome, introductions and expectations An introduction to the sponsors, facilitators and the purpose of the session.	Siobhan Hollier
1345-1415	Hopes and Fears	Catherine Blackaby Siobhan Hollier
1415-1445	Keeping abreast of policy and context: the current landscape An update on changes, structures and the context in which we work	Katherine Hickman
1445-1515	What do we want to change? What ideas or change projects do you have in mind?	Catherine Blackaby Siobhan Hollier
1515-1545	Break and resource area
1545-1715	Tips for success and avoiding failure Learning from experience, exploring why projects fail and what you need to succeed. Goals, keeping on track and engaging the right people.
1715-1755	Canva as a tool to make your case Introduction to Canva (www.canva.com) with an opportunity for Q&A	Becky Roberts
1755-1800	Close Summary and information for evening and tomorrow

Primary Care Respiratory Society

Saturday 21st November 2026

0830-0845	Welcome and recap	Catherine Blackaby
0845-0930	The role of AI A significant disruptor in the current context What it is and how it's being used Opportunities and challenges	Leslie Borrill
0930-1030	Research data and how to use it How to find and use data effectively, to understand context and to support practical challenges.	Jane Watson
1015-1030	Discussion and learning
1030-1100	Break and checkout (no later than 1100 hours)
1100-1205	Planning for action Plan on a page: Putting together a proposal in a meaningful way. What is the plan, the "so what?" and where to start.
1205-1235	Lift pitch Getting your point across: using your plan, the evidence and your understanding of your stakeholders, how might you get across to them why your change matters?	Claire Cook Siobhan Hollier
1220-1230	Introducing the afternoon's exercise and case studies
1230-1300	Lunch
1300-1345	Group activity Using Canva, present your case for change.
1345-1500	Plenary Small group presentations - what, who and how will you get people on board to tackle the issue you have identified?
1500-1530	Summary, hopes and fears review, evaluation Revisiting our hopes and fears from day one. Identifying our next steps and sharing personal reflections on what we have learnt.
1530	Close

NB Activity timings are approximate, but we will start and finish each day promptly

We are grateful to Chiesi for providing sponsorship to allow us to run this course free of charge for PCRS members. Chiesi have had no input to the development, content or delivery of this programme.